Colorado Evaluation and Action Lab
3 Years in Action

Three years ago, the Colorado Evaluation and Action Lab launched as a strategic research partner for Colorado government - specializing in actionable research that could improve the lives of Colorado residents.

Starting with philanthropic support and a deep partnership with the Colorado governor's office, the Lab has grown to accomplish 38 research projects in conjunction with 29 government agencies and 21 academic, private, and nonprofit research partners.

We created “Colorado Evaluation and Action Lab: 3 Years in Action” to report on the impact of our work, and to share how to connect with our efforts.

Please enjoy the report - and share your feedback with kristin@coloradolab.org.

Sincerely,

Kristin Klopfenstein
Director, Colorado Evaluation and Action Lab
